Adventurous Portfolio

Quarterly fact sheet - April 2025

Portfolio aims and objectives

The Adventurous Portfolio aims for higher growth, but with the likelihood of higher volatility. That means the value of your portfolio could experience larger ups and downs than any of our other portfolios.

This portfolio could be right for you if:

- growing your money over the medium to long term is your priority.
- you're willing to accept the potential for large ups and downs in the value of your investment, if it means increasing the potential for high investment returns.

Investment approach

The portfolio invests in a selection of funds across a range of assets like bonds, and equities with exposure to UK and international markets. This diversification helps to reduce the likelihood of large fluctuations in portfolio values since individual assets will respond differently to market conditions.

The portfolio invests mainly in passive funds, which means they track stock market indexes. One of the benefits of this is that they're generally less costly to run than funds that are actively managed by a fund manager.

Portfolio performance

	1 year	Since inception
Cumulative performance (%)	5.55%	17.13%

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

The value of your investment and income generated will be affected by changes in interest rates, currency exchange rates, credit risk, derivative risk, emerging market risk, social and political economic developments and general market conditions. Risks

The value of investments may go up and down and you may get back less than you originally invested.

Performance figures based on the performance of underlying holdings, rebalanced quarterly and including fund charges and costs. 'Rebalancing' is when funds are bought or sold to ensure the portfolio holdings stay close to its target fund mix for the agreed risk level.

Investment volatility

	Volatility	Maximum Drawdown
1 year rebased in £ Sterling (%)	7.97%	-4.10%

Volatility represents how wide 'standard' investment returns have been from the average.

Maximum drawdown is a measure of an asset's largest price drop from a peak to a trough.
